TAX BILL BEFORE SENATE TODAY

CLASH LOOMS TODAY ON GAS TAX INCREASE

Proposed Three Cent Levy of Senator Breed Made Special Order for Early Vote

WILL COME UP AT 11:30

Heated Arguments Expected on Senate Floor by Opposite Sides of Question

(By Universal Service)
SACRAMENTO, April 13.—The Senate was cleared today in the Senate for the big clash on Senator Breed's gasoline tax bill, which increases the revenue from that source from 2 cents to 3 cents a gallon, the raise, if adopted, going exclusively to new highway construction account.

On Senator Breed's own motion, the bill was made the special order of business for 11:30 a. m. tomorrow.

Indications tonight were that the bill will be put to a vote before the day is over.

Neither the proponents nor the opponents of the measure had arranged a program of discussion, but it could be predicted the talks will be numerous. It will be led by Senator Breed for the bill. Senator Will R. Sharkey of Martinez is scheduled to carry the argument for the opposition. Statements were made by both of them today.

Senator Breed announced hopefully: "The bill will pass tomorrow. There is no doubt on that score at all."

Senator Sharkey said succinctly: "It requires twenty-one votes to pass the bill."

Veterans Seek To Move Furniture From City Hall

Application of Ben Vignola for permission to conduct a soft drink parlor at the Hotel Colombo, 102 Standard avenue, was referred to the license committee for one week by the Richmond city council last night.

Application of Adolph Winters for permission to operate a skating rink in Winters hall, 315 Eleventh street, was granted.

The Allied War Veterans application for permission to move furniture from the basement of the city hall, where their meetings have been held, to the new Memorial hall, where the meetings are to be held in the future, was laid over for one week on account of complications, which Councilman Black declared loomed on the horizon. Black would not name the nature of the complications.

This furniture was purchased by the city and is also used by the Richmond Radio club, which meets in the city hall. It was stated that if the furniture is removed the Radio club should be allowed to use it in its new location, and E. E. Grow, president of the Allied Veterans' council, stated there would be no objection to the Radio club using the Memorial hall on Monday evenings. This is the only evening not otherwise taken up, he said.

The Radio club meets on Thursday evenings. Councilman Garrard said the Boy Scout of the east side are looking for a place to meet and he suggested that they be allowed to use the room vacated by the veterans, but without the furniture now used there.

These Girls Have Set Themselves The Task of Exterminating Rats—All Rats Within The United States

Miss Helen A. Caldwell, above, of Huntington, W. Va., and Miss Ann May Wright, below, of Portsmouth, Va., two beautiful young girls of the Southland who have taken up the novel business of killing rats. Miss Caldwell will conduct a rat war in Richmond for the next ten days.

In these days of women's equality with man, the "femle of the species" is often found in strange professions, and frequently originates fields of employment which man never thought of; but perhaps the most novel of all avocations is that taken up by Miss Helen A. Caldwell, Huntington, W. Va., and Miss Ann May Wright, Portsmouth, Va.

These two beautiful young ladies of the Southland have set themselves the task of ridding the United States of its most dreaded pest—the rat. Miss Caldwell is now in Richmond and Miss Wright is in Santa Rosa, both engaged in carrying on their war of extermination against rats.

They have the endorsement of the United States department of health, and in Richmond, Miss Caldwell will work in co-operation with the local health department. She is being introduced to Richmond business men by R. H. Cunningham, city sanitary inspector.

Basing her figures on the average of two rats to each person, and placing the population of Richmond at 30,000, Miss Caldwell estimates there are 60,000 rats in Richmond,

HARBOR WORK DELAYED ONE WEEK BY CITY

NECESSARY TO GET PERMISSION TO OPEN STREET BEFORE PROCEEDING

Harbor improvement matters were laid over for one week by the city council last night to give City Manager McVittie and City Engineer Hoffman time to confer with M. Emanuel, of the Ellis Landing and Drydock company, on the question of opening Eighth street to the inner harbor. McVittie was directed to have a report ready next meeting.

It developed last night that application to the War Department for permission to dredge for the second municipal wharf has not been made, owing to the fact that the city cannot determine the exact location of the proposed wharf until a conference can be held with E. Manuel, who is ill and not able to be seen at the present time. McVittie thought it possible that Emanuel might be approached during the present week.

It was brought out that Eighth street would be the most appropriate opening to the new wharf, and is preferred to Tenth street, but it was stated Emanuel is opposed to having a railroad beltline on Eighth street. Emanuel proposes to use this street for warehouses and a belt line would interfere with their operation. It was said, Engineer Hoffman, however, stated that data had been left for Emanuel, showing that it would improve his property and increase its value to have Eighth street opened, and he believed an amicable settlement could be made.

The question of starting condemnation proceedings to force the street right-of-way, was looked upon with disfavor, because of the length of time it would require to get any action through the courts. Some action must be taken before July 1, McVittie stated, in order that Congressmen Curry can go before the appropriations committee in July for further government assistance.

Court suits would delay action beyond this time, it was declared.

Building Leased For El Cerrito Public Library

Final action establishing a branch of the county library in El Cerrito was taken by the board of trustees of that city last night, when they leased a building at the corner of Fairmount and Liberty streets for the period of one year to be used for library purposes.

This action was taken over the protest of Flora and Henry Zauel, who objected to the location and also to the fact the city was paying rent on the building. The letter of protest was ordered received and placed on file.

On motion of Fred Lutz, acting on a communication from County Librarian Alice Whitbeck, recommending the building and location, the board of trustees ordered the lease signed.

FINED $500 ON DRY LAW

Police Judge C. A. Odell yesterday imposed a fine of $500 or 500 days in the county jail upon Elmer Lang, who upon being arrested last week pleaded guilty to possession of illicit liquor. He was arrested at the Hacienda Hotel, where he was caught with two bottles of "jackass" in his possession.

Local Merchants Association to Seek Ordinance Against Faker

The Richmond Merchants association held its semi-monthly meeting last night at Saint Edmund's Guild on Tenth street and Nevins avenue, with Chairman Fred McMoine presiding over the meeting.

The following merchants were admitted to membership of the association:

P. M. Black, cleaner and dyer; Carl Richards, music dealer; R. J. Ralph, food and grain dealer. A resolution was read relating to itinerant solicitors and peddlers. This resolution will be submitted to the city council for approval and if favorably acted upon will become a city ordinance.

City Attorney D. J. Hall, drafted the resolution, which will protect the Richmond merchants as well as the Richmond public.

At the next meeting of the association, which will be held on the evening of April 27, arrangement has been completed to have a prominent speaker and every member of the association is asked to bring two guests.

GASOLINE TAX ARGUMENTS ARE REFUTED

SACRAMENTO, April 13.—Members of both houses of the legislature were somewhat surprised today when they learned that in giving approval to the administration budget they voted more than $8,000,000 for highway purposes.

State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson called attention to the fact after a study of the budget. Throughout all the controversy over the proposed gasoline tax no mention has been made of appropriations for the state highway commission totaling $8,417,740, provided for in the governor's budget. A statement issued by Treasurer Johnson has occasioned a great deal of speculation as to whether the budget intended to provide $8,000,000 to the highway commission has caused no end of surprise as to why the highway commission, when called before the senate revenue and taxation committee last week to submit a budget, were not informed regarding the $8,000,000 already voted to it.

In a statement reviewing the budget, Treasurer Johnson says:

"Three items in the administration budget also to the highway commission a total of $8,417,740. One item provides $2,003,700 for salaries for the highway commission; another appropriates $872,040 for its support, and the third sets aside $5,542,000 for new construction of state highways. All these monies come out of the general fund. They are in addition to any other revenues which will come to the commission from the present gasoline tax, motor vehicle registrations and federal aid, which revenues are variously estimated at from $30,000,000 to $35,000,000.

The highway commission had on January 1st of this year a balance of approximately $11,000,000. With budget appropriations out of the general fund amounting to more than $8,000,000, making a total of approximately $19,000,000 it would appear that the highway commission will have, from sources already provided for, ample funds for any reasonable highway program.

"Under the circumstances, I see

Municipal Wharf Earns $3,362.75 Here Past Month

Richmond's one municipal wharf earned the city $3,362.75 in the month of March, according to a report submitted to the city council last night by Harbor Master Jackson H. Wiser. A total tonnage of 21,538.16 was handled.

Ships docked here during the month were reported as follows: West Islip, Swaine and Hoyt, March 2, loading for Australia; West Jester, American Far East, March 2-4, Oriental port; Indianie, General Steamship Company, March 4-8, Australia; David C. Meyer, McCormick S. S. Co., March 9, North Coast.

Haurkl, Union S. S. Co., March 12-13, Australia; Hartwood, Union S. S. Co., March 16, North Coast, West Prospect, American Far East, March 18-18 Oriental port; Eagle, Pacific Mail, March 18-20, discharging cargo for the Standard Oil company.

West Nivaria, Swaine and Hoyt, March 24, Australia; Ekharren, General S. S. Corporation, March 26, Australia.

Stockton Street Waiting Room To Be Maintained

The Key Route waiting room at the corner of Stockton and San Pablo avenues in El Cerrito, which had been objected to by the state highway commission, will not be abandoned, at least until the first of May.

A communication granting the City of El Cerrito permission to maintain the waiting room until May 1, was received by the board of trustees last night.

The highway commission also granted the City of El Cerrito the permission to install an arc light at the corner of Potrero and San Pablo avenues.

Fire Equipment Bond Election At El Cerrito

That the El Cerrito $65,000 bond election for fire equipment will probably be held on May 19, was indicated last night, when the board of trustees adopted the resolution calling for an ordinance setting the election date. The ordinance is expected to be adopted at a special meeting called for tonight, and the earliest date the election can be held is on May 19. It was stated that this date would likely be set.

Frank MacDermott Is El Cerrito Mayor

Frank MacDermott was elected mayor of El Cerrito for the coming year, by the board of trustees at their meeting last night. The action was taken on the motion of George Conlon, retiring mayor. MacDermott, in a short speech of acceptance, said he had been given the outgoing mayor.

no reason why additional funds should be provided for by an increased gasoline tax."

SHORTAGE LAID TO EMPLOYE OF ANGLO BANK CO.

$54,000 Said to Have Been Embezzled by Employee of Anglo California Bank

FOR OWN BUSINESS DEALS

Motive For Theft Said to Have Been Desire to Aid Wife And Daughter

(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Chris D. de Jongh, assistant cashier of the Anglo California Trust Company and for fifteen years prior a trusted employee of the Seaboard National Bank, was lodged yesterday in the city prison charged with embezzlement of the bank's funds.

The specific complaint against de Jongh accuses him of having stolen $10500, but an investigation of his books is now in progress, which, it was charged, would show a total defalcation of $54,000.

Wine and women, according to the Lubbeck Detective Agency, who made the investigation, had nothing to do with the banker's crime. In fact every clue that the police traced down, pointed to an exemplary home life and the authorities say that the desire to better the life of his wife and two beautiful daughters was the prime motive which led de Jongh from his high position to a cell.

TELLS INVESTMENTS

After his arrest yesterday, Detective Harry Lubbeck said, he made a clean breast of his defalcations. They say he told them that the money he had taken from the bank had been invested in the Copper Manufacturing Company, 1286 Folsom street. The company manufactures a vending machine and De Jongh stated that the large overhead had eaten heavily into its capital. He had at first mortgaged his home at 530 Twenty-second avenue to invest in the company.

Building Plans On Exhibition Now At Builders Exchange

Plans and specifications for the construction of a two-story store and flats building, to be erected on the southwest corner of Fifth and Barrett, have been placed at the Builders Exchange where they may be seen at any time, it was announced yesterday.

The building is to be erected for L. Banducci at a cost of over $10,000, and is to consist of beautiful store rooms on the ground floors and several flats above. It was designed by Wolf Brothers. It will be of stucco finish.

Bids on the general contract are to be opened at the Builders Exchange at 3:30 in the afternoon of Friday, April 17, and the subbids are to be opened at 10:30 in the morning of the same days. The building is expected to add much to the appearance of the district.

Building Permits Valued At $30,100

Nineteen building permits, representing a valuation of $30,100, were granted in El Cerrito the past month according to the monthly report of Building Inspector Forrest Wright, submitted to the board of trustees last night.

ARE YOU FREE FROM BLAME?

In seven years, from 1915 to 1923 inclusive, defective chimneys and flues caused a loss of $104,289,206 in the United States. As an originator of fires, only matches and smoking have a greater record than chimneys and flues.

"Safeguarding America Against Fire" shows by photograph the type of chimney in the average dwelling place which has caused this terrible loss. There is apparently no excuse for their existence other than the carelessness of the people who live in the houses where they are located.

These chimneys are shown to have open cracks between the bricks where the flames and sparks can come in contact with wooden walls. It makes one shudder to think of the thousands of helpless children, sick persons and cripples who are in houses where this lurking fire menace is ever present.

Reflect for a moment that the greatest known fire starters are matches, smoking and defective chimneys, and that control over them rests almost entirely with the individual. Losses caused by these agencies are almost wholly chargeable to the individual. Such a record of fire loss from these controllable causes is a terrible arraignment of the average American for his negligence and indifference toward life and property.

In France the fire-starter is liable for damage caused by his carelessness. The fire-loss record in the United States has more than doubled in the last ten years. If it doubles in the next ten years, the annual destruction by fire will aggregate over a billion dollars in money and the death of 30,000 persons.

Unless we check our own carelessness the law may have to check it for us.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The duty schools owe to the children is two-fold and to some extent there is nothing to choose between the two gifts. Means sana in corpore sano is no idle phrase, left us by our Roman forebears, nor is it a part of the justly attacked Roman system, now outgrown by civilization. The state, servant of its people, must also be their master in some things, and one of them is the training of the future citizen.

For a while one noted the growth of athletics in colleges, and high schools and grammar schools paid no attention to sports. But the use of organized play came with a rush to the lower schools and it has vastly repaid its cost.

There must be some lower limit in the schools to the organized athletic contests, but we can see no lower limit except the first days of kindergarten, for organized play. If the very youngest pupils in the public schools can be given some mild form of physical drill, they will turn out a greater proportion of players physically capable of taking part in interschool contests at say the junior high school stage.

The training of the mind must be accompanied by some training of the body. Indeed, so far as quite young persons are concerned, it is easier and better to attend to the physique than to the mind, for even new born babies can be given exercise calculated to stiffen the frame, limber the muscles and build up good bodily functions.

GASOLINE INVESTIGATIONS

Not so many months ago the people were told the price of gasoline would soon be $1.00 a gallon, although the retail price was then around 25 or 30 cents a gallon.

High prices encouraged crude oil production to such an extent that crude prices fell so low, many wells had to be closed or so bankrupt. Gasoline prices fell to the lowest point enjoyed by motorists for many years.

But as crude oil production fell off, due to low prices, reserve supplies diminished and then in order to get crude, refineries had to pay what was necessary to again encourage production. The result is our gasoline prices are beginning to climb.

The price of any product that is subject to the law of supply and demand will advance and recede according to market conditions just as do the tides of the sea, and all the laws and investigations to the contrary will not change this inexorable rule.

STRIVING TO SERVE THE PUBLIC

Insurance is ever on the lookout for new ways to serve and protect the public against loss. Now insurance protection is to be afforded the aircraft industry by the larger companies provided the manufacturers of airplanes are willing to co-operate with the insurance companies.

No great strides in this industry can be made until insurance protection is afforded. If the insurance companies can have the unified co-operation of the aircraft industry, protection will be available.

Some people's silence is only very thin gold plate.

SCHOOL DAYS

DRESS

By MARY MARSHALL
Copyright 1925 by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate

Here is a Smart Buckled Coat for the Well Dressed Traveler.

IT has frequently been observed that French women refuse to be ugly on rainy days. They would wear unbecoming mackintoshes, and they abominate rubbers. Word comes now from overseas that the continued bad weather to which both England and France were treated during late winter and early spring has inspired many of the French dress-makers to turn their attention to the designing of really attractive rain clothes.

As a result there is the so-called mackintosh suit made of soft waterproof silk in the smartest colors of the season. It is as trim and as well fitted as a fair-weather frock. Inclement weather does not rob the French woman of her desire for the ensemble effect, and so there are hats of the rubberized material to match, with waterproof leather trimmings.

The French woman adopts the same policy regarding travel that she does toward inclement weather. The English notion of long staidness has been that when a woman starts out on any sort of journey she would do herself up in the most ungainly of tweeds and the most unbecoming mannish cloth hats, flat-heeled shoes and heavy stockings. So characteristic was this of the women of Great Britain that they could almost always be told at sight when seen on the continent. To wear such traveling apparel would have been a penance had it not been taken for granted as the thing to do under the circumstances. Many American women seemed to possess something of this British attitude toward traveling apparel.

It took the frivolous Parisienne to protest, and the French dressmaker set about formulating utility and wearableness in "traveling" clothes with chic and charm. This problem is less difficult to work out now than in years gone by because the mode of today so frequently identifies that which is simple, mannish and eminently serviceable with that which is smart and fashionable. Tan, beige and brown, always considered eminently proper for travel clothes, bear the stamp of fashion's approval. The small close-fitting hat which every woman seems to want to wear might have been designed expressly for travel by land, water or motor-car. Bechoff solves the problem of traveling hats by making traveling coats with capes and collars that turn up over the head to make smart headgear.

The sketch shows a travel coat of peculiar appeal. Made of tan and brown plaid it is fastened under the left side with buckles, which likewise hold the collar smartly snug around the neck and the sleeves close around the wrist.

HOME-MADE HOT CROSS BUNS

THESE may be made the day before and reheated for breakfast on Friday morning. The receipt calls for eight ingredients—one yeast cake one cup of milk, one-third of a cup and one tablespoon of sugar, one-quarter cup of butter, a quarter cup of currants, three and one-quarter cups of flour previously sifted, one egg and a level quarter spoon of salt. The milk should be scalded in a double boiler and then cooled until it is just lukewarm. Pour into a mixing bowl or bread-mixer and add the yeast cake and a tablespoon of sugar, and one and a half cups of flour. Beat very thoroughly. Cover the dish and set in a warm place to rise for an hour or until nice and light. Now cream one-quarter cup of butter and a third cup of sugar, and add an egg well beaten. Measure out the rest of the flour, amounting to one and three-quarters cups, and a quarter cup of currants, and flour the currants with a little of the flour. Add the salt and mix all together. Turn out on a board and knead or mix very thoroughly in the bread-mixer. Now grease a clean bowl and place the dough in this, cover and set aside until it has doubled in size. This will take about two hours or more. Now take out and cut into small bits and form in round buns. Grease baking pans and set the buns in them, allowing room between for rising. Cover the pans and let rise again, which will take an hour or more. If you have an extra egg white to spare dilute with about a tablespoon of water and glaze each bun. Cut a cross in the top of each bun, and let bake for about twenty minutes. Now remove and brush each bun with a little syrup made from sugar and water and return to the oven and let cook for a few minutes more. On removing from the oven have ready a little white sugar (or any flavored icing or confectioners' sugar-icing) will do—and fill the cross in each bun with this.

by VIOLET DARE

AUTHOR OF "The Half-Time Wife," "The Husband Tamer," "One Wife on Approval," etc.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED.

NANCY LARRABEE has remained in New York with her mother.

VIRGINIA, while her husband, a young army officer, is in the Philippines. They become estranged and she writes him that she wants to divorce him and marry Bill Ewing. She received a cablegram saying that Jim has died at sea, and realizes that it is Jim she loves.

TODAY'S INSTALLMENT

XLV—A CHANGED MAN

I COULD hardly believe my eyes when I saw Jim there before me in the railway station.

"Oh, Jim?" I cried, and broke through the crowd to throw my arms around his neck.

"Well, this is a great welcome," he exclaimed, and kissed me. He turned then to two men who were beside him, and introduced me. "Where are we living, Nancy?" he asked.

And when I gave him the name of the hotel where I was staying, he urged the men to stay there too. "You might as well; all hotels are the same to you fellows in this town," he said.

I didn't understand. I was dazed by seeing Jim alive, and so happy that I could hardly speak. But I did wish that he'd at least let his friends follow us in another taxi, instead of going in the one we took.

He talked with them all the way. They were strangers in New York, and he insisted on pointing out things to them, hardly speaking to me.

"You'll dine with us, of course," he said, when the business of registering at the desk was over. "And then we'll take in a show. I want to have you see the town tonight."

I said nothing to him until the door of our own sitting-room had closed behind us. Then I could be quiet no longer.

"Jim, aren't you glad to see me? I can't understand the way you're acting; it seems so queer. Why did you bring those two men right along with us? Didn't you want to be alone with me?"

"Not particularly," he answered, casually.

"But Jim, I—I thought you were dead—and now here you are—and you don't care for me any more!"

"Thought I was dead!" he exclaimed. "Well, that's a hot one. How in the world did you get that idea?"

I told him about the message I'd received, saying that he had died at sea.

"Well, I can't understand—though—oh, this is it. A sailing named Larrabee died at sea, on the way home, and evidently it got twisted with my name, Larrabee—though I certainly don't understand—oh well, I'm here, alive; that's all that matters."

"Yes, it is," I answered. I stood there looking at him, realizing that I loved him more than ever. But I couldn't understand his attitude. He strolled around the room without taking off his coat, lighted a cigarette, asked about Virginia, treated me as if I'd been someone whom he knew just slightly and didn't care for particularly.

"How did you like the Philippines?" I asked finally. If he could be casual, so could I.

"Oh, very much. Awfully hot, but after you get used to the climate it isn't bad at all. And of course you get to know the other people in the regiment very well, better than you do in a big post."

"I suppose you got to know Celia Eaton very well indeed!" I remarked.

"I sure did, sharing the house with her and Bill. She made us awfully comfortable—certainly is a good housekeeper, for all she looks so helpless. Bill doesn't appreciate her, though. In fact—well, they've separated. Celia came home on the transport I took. She is going to get a divorce."

"I thought you were dead."

"Divorce, divorce! I wished I'd never heard the word."

Suddenly I felt that I understood Jim's new attitude. I had written him that I loved someone else, and he had come home to get his freedom, and marry Celia.

Well, he should have it! I wouldn't stand in his way.

He seemed to read my thoughts. "I suppose we ought to have a talk and settle things," he suggested.

"Yes—but let's dress for dinner first. Let's see—I'll use Virginia's room and you can have mine."

"All right."

He picked up one of his bags and sauntered off through the door I'd indicated, whistling. I turned slowly and went into Virginia's room.

What a treasure of love I'd thrown away, when I wrote that message to him! I'd lost him now, forever, and nobody could ever take his place.

I asked myself hopelessly why I hadn't realized the truth, why I hadn't gone to the Philippines with him when he was ordered there, instead of staying in New York and making a perfect idiot of myself.

If only girls could really learn something about life in school, instead of just studying French and Latin!

Grace Lutheran Church Exceeds Previous Records

Attendance at the Grace Lutheran Sunday school Sunday was the largest in the history of the organization. The large numbers present at the communion service also set a new goal for church attendance. Several new members were received into church fellowship, in addition to the catechism class, which was confirmed on Palm Sunday. Members of this class were, Violet Gladys Gardell, Susie May Jaramillo, William Walter Klatt, Tillie Helena Soeffel, Ora Winifred Silly and Clara Sner.

In his sermon, the pastor, Rev. S. T. Himes, set forth the Gospel of the Living Savior in His walk among men of today. The Easter spirit was further expressed by the inspiring solo, "Calvary," sung by Miss Agnes Pieper. Roses and Easter lilies added to the joyous Easter spirit, symbolizing the Resurrection. In the evening the children of the church gave a well rendered program of Easter songs and recitations before an exceptionally large audience. The pastor addressed part of his Easter lesson to the children and concluded with present day application of the Power of the Resurrection.

These Easter services marked a climax in the progress of the Grace Lutheran church and predict success for the future.

TWO EASTER WEDDINGS AT WESLEY M. E. CHURCH

Two Easter weddings were performed at the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church Sunday, with the Rev. C. G. Lindemann, pastor of the church performing the ceremony.

At 10:45 Sunday morning Jerome Benjamin, of Los Angeles and Mildred R. Race of Richmond were united in marriage. They will make their home in Los Angeles. At 12:30 Frank R. Shellenberger of Knightsen, claimed as his bride, Evelyn J. Taylor, of Antioch. They will make their home at Knightsen. They were attended by Charles Shellenberger of Brentwood, and Ruth Norman of Fresno.

The beautiful Easter decorations of the church, and the Easter spirit of the day, formed fitting surroundings for the two ceremonies.

HARBOR LODGE CONFERS DEGREE

Before a full house and amid impressive ceremonies the first degree was imposed upon a class of candidates by the officers of Harbor Lodge, No. 502 F. and A. M., in Masonic hall last night. M. C. Henkin, master, was in charge during the session, and headed the officers who performed the rituals of the degree work.

ST. EDMUND'S EASTER SERVICE IMPRESSIVE

The celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 7:30 a. m. started off the Easter services at St. Edmund's church last Sunday. Rev. H. L. Obenholzer, with the senior and junior choir intoning the service, presided over the ceremonies.

The processional hymn, "Christ Is Risen" was played and the recessional hymn, "Come Ye Faithful" sung. Rev. Obenholzer chose for his text, "The Risen Christ." The entire service was attended by a large congregation. At the close of the communion the entire school, choir, teachers and scholars met at an Easter breakfast in the Guild rooms.

The church service was held before a crowded congregation, with the Junior choir, led by the cross bearer, Master Charles Hall, with Miss Margaret Hunt at the organ, and the vicar conducting the service.

At 11 o'clock an overflow service was held, being very impressive with the double choir, vested and the large choir of additional volunteer singers rendering Tom's "Kyrie Eleison" and the Gloria. Herbert Caswell and William Goldworthy were the soloists. Mrs. Goldworthy was the organist.

The Knights Templar conducted a most impressive ceremony at 7:30 in the evening. The services opened with a grand processional march, played by Mrs. Goldworthy organist. This was followed by the singing of the processional hymn by clergy, choir and relate, who entered the church at this time.

I. O. O. F. WILL ANNIVERSARY AT CHURCH

On Sunday evening, April 26, at 7 o'clock, the members of Canton Richmond, No. 40, Eclipse lodge, No. 403, Contra Costa Encampment No. 39, Richmond Rebeakhs No. 206, and Zephyr Rebeakhs are all kindly requested to assemble in Richmond hall, and go in a body to the First Christian church, where the Rev. F. A. Woten will preach the one hundred sixth anniversary sermon of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

A meeting of Eclipse Lodge No. 403, I. O. O. F. was held in Richmond hall last night with Noble Grand R. B. Hamilton, presiding. Only matters of routine business were transacted, however.

BEAUTIFUL CHILDREN OF EX-EMPRESS ZITA WHO HAVE SUFFERED MANY HARDSHIPS IN SHORT LIVES IN EXILE

have seen many hardships, living in exile with their father and since his death having been buffeted along the ways of charity.

Over 300 Turned Away At Wesley Church Pageant

Over 300 people were turned away from the Wesley Methodist church Sunday night when the Easter pageant, "The Dawning" was presented. They were unable to find standing room within the packed auditorium. These who managed to get in were well repaid, because the pageant was one of the best presented offerings ever seen in Richmond. It was given in true professional style, all of the more than forty local people who took part, giving each part to perfection.

Much credit for the wonderful success of the pageant is due to the efforts of Mrs. C. G. Lindemann and W. J. Osborne, co-directors, who worked untiringly over its preparation. Great credit is also due Miss Hamilton for her able handling of the children in the juvenile parts and to Miss Ruby Williams, director of the music.

Rev. T. G. Bane, district superintendent of the Methodist churches of the bay area, who was here to witness the pageant, said that in all his years of church experience, he had not seen anything so finely done. Similar praise is heard from many others.

Leaders of the pageant are very grateful to the Knights of Pythians for the loan of the costumes for the men, and to the church at Cornhill for the costumes for the women.

All the members of the cast will meet for dinner Thursday evening, April 16 at 6:30, in the church parlors. Following the dinner a short business meeting will be held, after which games will be played and a social evening enjoyed.

The Woman Pays

For morning grouchiness, start every day with good cheer

All nature in the morning is the result of accumulated poisons. They are easy to eliminate. Drink a glass of water before breakfast. That washes out the stomach and fits it for food. Add to that water a little Jad Salts. Then you have an acid, effervescent drink. It is delightful. Jad

Salts are made from the acids of lemon and grapes plus lithia, etc. In one hour comes complete elimination. All that irritates, all that poisons is removed. You start the day fit, happy, energetic, like a child of ten. Millions do that now. If the day looks gloomy, they take Jad Salts in their morning drink. Then everything is sunny in an hour. You will save those lost days when you find this out, and will thank us for it. Start tomorrow. See what a difference Jad Salts make. At all druggists.

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

The way to solve the Cross Word Puzzle is to fill in the white squares of the diagram with the words which agree with the accompanying definitions. The definitions are numbered to correspond with the numbers on the diagram.

Any word defined in the text under "HORIZONTAL" will begin at its number, shown on the diagram, and will extend all the way across to the first black space to the right of that number. That is, the word must begin in the square that contains its identifying number, and extend as far as the white squares continue uninterrupted.

Any word defined under "VERTICAL" will also begin in the white space that contains its number, but will extend downward as far as the white squares remain uninterrupted.

TRAVEL

BORNEO: The Stealer of Hearts. A book well worth reading if only to make the acquaintance of the author Oscar Cook, a young Englishman, who spent the years 1912 to 1919 as an official in the North Borneo Civil Service. If there were more men of Mr. Cook's type in colonial positions of authority the "white man's burden" would be less heavy than it is now.

THE ISLE OF FEAR by Katherine Mayne has the subtitle "The truth about the Philippines." Miss Mayne gathered her material at first hand in the islands and presents the viewpoint of the islanders. Another book to read in connection with this one is Williams' "The United States and the Philippines," 1924. Mr. Williams gives the view of the imperialist and the American investor.

ROUND THE WORLD by Frank Hedges Butler is the travel record of an English-business man who's hobby was traveling.

Prepares Camp For High Cadets

Major Ivan Hill, commandant of the Richmond high school cadets, went to Leona Heights yesterday to prepare for the annual state cadet encampment to be held at that place April 30 to May 1, inclusive. He is gathering data in regard to sending in requisitions for tentage and field and kitchen supplies.

The state high school rifle competition will not be held this year according to word issued by the state adjutant-general. Hill said that as the state is going to uniform all high school cadets, there will be no surplus funds to finance a shoot.

North Richmond Baptist Church Offers Prize Car

The North Richmond Baptist church is conducting a drive to raise $1000, with which to pay off the debt of their church. They are taking subscriptions of one dollar or more and with each dollar they give the subscriber a ticket which entitles the holder to a chance of owning a new 1925 Ford.

The North Richmond Baptist church is conducted by the colored people of North Richmond, who have a well attended congregation without the services of a regular minister. The deacons of the church conduct the services and it is gratifying to know the way they conduct the affairs of the church and the great amount of good they do amongst their flock.

If they can pay off the debt of the church building, they intend to have the services of a preacher, who will assist them in the gospel teachings. The fraternal and civic organizations as well as the various churches of the city have been asked to lend their help in raising the necessary $1000.

"Home Manager—Purchasing Agent—Art Director—Wife"

JUST a slim girl, maybe, or a motherly woman with sweet eyes and white hair—but what a responsibility is hers!

She is the active partner in the business of running a home. She buys most of the things which go to make home life happy, healthful and beautiful. Through her slim, safe fingers goes most of the family money.

And wisely and well it is usually spent too—far better than the average man could spend it himself. For women are better purchasing agents than men. They compare prices, weight values and shop carefully.

They read advertisements regularly. Every day you'll find the wise little home manager searching the advertising columns for news that will add to the comfort, convenience and improvement of her home. You will find the same clever purchasing agent studying the advertisements to find where and when to buy, and what and how to buy most economically. The advertisements, too, tell this responsive art director how she can make her home more beautiful, more individual—the kind of home that a man appreciates but never knows how it is done!

Advertisements are the wise counsellors in the spending of money that the clever housewife heeds daily.

The business of running a home is made easier by reading the advertisements

MAJOR LEAGUE BALL SEASONS TO OPEN TODAY

By JOSEPH GORDON.
(By Universal Service)
NEW YORK, April 13. "Battle up!"

This familiar sound—the only command Americans love to hear—will resound in eight major league cities tomorrow afternoon.

A moment later catchers and umpires will adjust their masks. Pitchers will look around to see if their supporting casts are in position. Lead off men will saunter to the plate and sixteen powerful ball clubs, all starting from scratch, will make their first dash in the long race to pennantville.

The end of the grind will not come until October.

The three New York major league teams are hopeful and confident. For the first time in many years all of them—the Giants, Yankees and Dodgers—are in the running, each feared, each standing an excellent chance to win out.

For the last several years the Dodgers were the "black sheep" of the local family. They are considered one of the dangerous clubs of the National league. Many experts pick them to win the flag. None dares put them further down than third place in the spring forecasts.

The Yankees will usher in the local American league season in the stadium. Their opponents will be the Washington Senators, champions of the world.

The Senators are one of the few clubs that stand in the path of the Yankees. Both teams attach great importance to this series. Both will fire their best materials in an effort to get the edge. Urban Shocker, former Yankee enemy and now one of their best pitchers, will be in the box for Miller Huggins. Tom Zachary, left hander and giant killer, will oppose him.

The Giants went to Boston tonight. Tomorrow they open with the Braves the team which Davey Bancroft is rapidly whipping into shape. Hugh McQuillan will pitch the opener for the Giants. Jess Barnes, a former Giant, will try to do the thing he loves to do most—to beat the Giants.

The Phillies are here from Philadelphia to tackle Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets field. They will be met by Dazzy Vance, the speed king nonpareil. Jimmy King, a native of Brooklyn, will be in there for Arthur Fletcher.

The New York clubs are suffering from severe casualties. Babe Ruth, who two years ago initiated the season by busting the ball, will be missing. The Babe is ill in the

Elks Trap Men to Shoot at Martinez

The Richmond Elks' trapshoot will not be held this year, according to T. K. Morgan, one of the star shots of the local team, who states that the local shooters will co-operate with the Martinez Gun Club and put on a big shoot at the latter city on April 26.

W. B. Trull and Jack Becker and Enoch Jincchio advertised the tournament to be held in Martinez at Merced Sunday where they went to participate in the shoot there.

The blue rock shoot at Martinez yesterday was participated in by T. K. Morgan and Oscar Brooks, who turned in scores of 45 and 39 respectively.

The Giant's sick list is even longer. Captain Frankie Frisch, the most valuable man on the club, is still suffering from an injured ankle. Even if he does play tomorrow, he will not be able to play his best.

Fred Lindstrom is another patient. Heine Groh is still another. Billy Southworth, who is a much improved ball player this year, will be out for some time.

Even Manager McGraw is on the hospital list. He may brave it tomorrow and come out to lead his team.

The Dodgers are a little better off in that respect—except for Robb himself. The great Brooklyn manager, one of the best baseball men ever had, is recuperating. But it is no secret that he is worrying a great deal about his health.

All Brooklyn is hoping that Bobbie will recover fully before the season is on in full swing.

The Dodgers have a strong club. Their hitting is second to none. Wheat, Brown, Pournier, High, and Johnston, look better than they ever did at this time of the year. Their pitchers, Vance, Grimes and several of the younger generation, look quite the goods.

Roosevelt Wallops Burbank Ball Team

The 100 pound aggregation of embryo big leaguers of the Roosevelt Junior High school were again returned the victors in their game with the team of the same weight from the Burbank Junior high school of Berkeley, at Berkeley yesterday. The final score was 6 to 5.

Doyal Taylor the crack moundsman for Richmond pitched a sterling game as much as boys and she is now helping in the organization of a baseball league for girls which will get under way this year in her home city.

On Wednesday the Unlimited team of the Roosevelt school will receive a visit from Garfield Junior High of Berkeley for their ninth game of the season, the first 8 games being all victories for Richmond. They expect to repeat tomorrow.

Laundry Girls to Challenge Local Merchants Team

Whether sarcasm, pride, or confidence no one knows, but the facts are that as a result of the merchants being walloped by the firemen 21 to 22 yesterday, the girls of the Home Laundry have declared they will organize a ball club and play the said merchants. But it is doubtful if they will be able to do much toward winning the game as the business men have shown remarkable development since their game with the policemen last week and they are confident that they will eventually have a real dark horse ball club.

In the fourth inning of the game the score stood 19 to 4 in favor of the firemen, but in the fifth, the entire lineup of merchants did their stuff with the stick and managed to send ten runs over the plate before their opponents could stop their terrific onslaught.

Captain Howard showed that his heart, if not his mind, was on the game when in the fifth inning with Huezeka, whose ideas of inside baseball are quite dim, at second and holing for a coach, Capt. paraded out back of second to give the desired prompting.

The coach was not very successful in creating the new coaching box, but he was very successful in evoking some beautiful jeers and catcalls from the bleachers. It was declared, however, that he was doing his bit toward winning a tight game.

The lineup: Firemen—Huezeka, 3b; Hathaway, 1b; Grady, c; Lathrop, rf; Merriman, 2b; Kitley, cf; Addison, ss; Buys, lf; Howard, p; Martin and Davidson, subs.

Merchants—Woten, Knott, Johnson, Carter, O'Loan, Hill, Burg, Watson, Osborne, Imbach.

Pullman Team Beats Crockett

A score of 5 to 4 stood against the Pullman ball club when the ninth frame of the encounter with Crockett started Sunday. The final tally was 8 to 5 in favor of Pullman. Daley took a walk at the beginning of the final canto and was advanced to second on Elwood's single. The bags were filled when Lawson was hit by the hurrier. Daley completed the circuit on Crosby's base hit. The game was ended when McCarron, Seal rookie, smacked out a three sacker, scoring Elwood and Lawson. A home run and two singles garnered by Elwood made him the star club wielder of the session. Lund was in great form in the box, whiffing 11 husky batsmen. The Kackebusch brothers starred for the losers.

SCHOOL EVERY THURSDAY

The interclass track meet of the Union high school will be held Thursday and the field events in the same class are scheduled for Thursday. Coach Hill stated yesterday. The interclass meets are annual affairs of the school and are given mostly in preparation for the meets with other high schools in the near future.

McRackens Beat Pittsburg Nine In Sunday Game

The season was started off in the most satisfactory manner as far as the W. S. McRackens baseball club is concerned. They walloped Pittsburg Independents on their own field Sunday, 8 to 6. The locals played errorless ball and showed they knew the finer points of the game.

With two men planted on bases, Mater, third sacker for McRackens, kissed out a neat homer in the eighth which tied the score. In the ninth, Taylor clouded out a two base hit with a pair of men on.

One of the longest home runs of the season was made by Bumy Muth, and this man generally made things disagreeable for the hurrier of the opposition with his two bagger. The outer garden presided over by John O'Rourke was very well covered, and he crashed the hopes of Pittsburg for a number of runs when he made two spectacular running catches.

McRackens will go to Crockett next Sunday to play the fast team from that city. Yesterday's box score follows:

SORE CHEST AND NERVOUSNESS
In an Oakland Court on January 29, 1925, hundreds of people heard the testimony of Mr. D. Abilair of Mt. Eden and of Mr. J. Duarte of San Leandro, both of whom had been called as witnesses against Fong Wan by the Medical Board.

These men testified before the jury that the Fong Wan Herbs had permanently relieved both Sore Chest and Nervousness, and had made them strong and able to go back to work again.

They claim that no other treatment has repeatedly been vindicated in court and proved to be an effective as the Fong Wan Herbs.

This testimony was given in the first trial of Fong Wan in the latest campaign of the Medical Board against the Chinese Herbalists about the Bay.

HEALTH SURVEY FOR SCHOOLS NOW UNDER WAY

Everything is ready for the Pre-school Health Survey which is to occur during the last two weeks of April. Kindergarten teachers this week are sending out full instructions to all parents. Children not in Kindergarten are welcome to participate in this very important program. Dr. Millberry, Dean of the University of California, will deliver a talk that will make parents of all children think and everyone is urged to attend the meeting on Tuesday afternoon, April 14th, at 2:00 p. m. in the Lincoln Auditorium.

When we take into consideration that so much of a child's success in life depends upon health and health habits, we know that it is unfair to him if he is not put in the best working condition for otherwise he will derive very little benefit from his schooling. It is unfair to other pupils who are held back by the slower progress of children who, if put in good order, would do better work. It is a waste of energy on the part of the teacher who must labor with dull tools that could be sharpened to a degree. It is a waste of public funds to permit teachers to work with pupils who cannot profit as much by sheer efforts as might be the case if their bodily condition were improved. In a word, it is a school.

The questions: Why are children absent from school? "Why are children bad?" are from recent studies upon the child problem, known to be caused from physical conditions. In answer to the first question: More than 70 per cent of all absences are due to medical problems, more than one-fourth being due to the common cold and nearly 40 per cent to respiratory disturbances. Boys and girls seem to be absent equally for all causes. The second question can be answered from a discovery made by a recent study in New York.

Delinquent children are usually under par physically. There was brought before the children's court and examined 743 children. Examination indicated that physical condition of delinquent children in general is much inferior to that of ordinary school children. Seventy-nine per cent of the children before the court had physical defects, while only 35 per cent of public school children living in the same district and of same ages and nationalities had defects.

The chief difference between the two groups so far as physical conditions were concerned, seemed to be the following:

Free examinations for the purpose of determining the physical fitness of children about to enter school are now being conducted in nearly every county of California.

WESLEY CHURCH HAS GREAT DAY

Editor, The Richmond Record Herald, Richmond, California.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of my church I wish to thank you for the generous publicity you gave our Easter services. Without this publicity our services would not have been the wonderful success they were.

We had a great day. Our Sunday school attendance was 434; a great congregation was present at the 11:00 o'clock service; and for our pageant—"The Dawning" which was given at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, we had to turn scores away from the door because of lack of seating capacity.

During the day we had the pleasure of receiving forty-one into the membership of the church, and baptizing eighteen children. We also had two weddings at the church. Thanking you and your excellent paper again for your fine co-operation. I am,

Sincerely yours,
CHAS. G. LINDEMANN,
Pastor.

Pullman Street Work Ordered To Proceed By City

No formal protests having been received against the improvement of Pullman Street, the city council last night passed a resolution ordering the improvement of those streets and calling for bids to be opened at the council meeting on Monday evening, April 27.

A. Slonzo, who resides on Ohio and Forty-second, appeared in person, but he did not so much object to the paving as he appealed for fire protection. He said he owned eight blocks in the district and the paving would cost him $1,500. He believed the money could be better spent for fire protection, of which he declared he has absolutely none at the present time.

Slonzo thought the improvement was needed, but believed fire protection should come first. He feared the expensive paving would have to be torn up later to make way for water mains. He was assured, however, that mains are now being laid in that vicinity and that ample fire protection will follow the street improvements.

It was stated last night that the type of pavement specified for the district can be taken up if necessary and replaced in its exact original position, without any defects, and that it is the only type of paving that can be used in this manner.

These Girls Have

learned from foreign shores on board ships and spread by the rats through the harbor.

Miss Caldwell gave the Record-Herald the following recipe for rat extermination:

To one teaspoonful of barium carbonate, mix three or four teaspoonful of any food - rat will eat, such as meat, cheese, cereals, fruits or vegetables. For best results, use three kinds of bait mixed separately, and continued with the one they most prefer until the rats disappear.

Where fowls or other animals are apt to get the bait, place it under a weighted box with holes in the sides just large enough for the passage of a rat. Place the bait in the runways at night and remove during the night.

Miss Caldwell will be in Richmond about 10 days.
